Chapter 1 by Alan Chialva

He was a solitaire boy who used to spend his time reading and watching tv. He was waiting the day when his life becomes an adventure, but this day seems to never come... Meanwhile he had to look through the window and be content with observe other people intrigant life.

But one day something change... He was sitting in front of the tv, watching the Chavo del Ocho when an idea suddenly crossed his mind. He started thinking that no one ever had made a lot of things meaningless; for example :
